WHY

The fight against cancer continues in our community and country every day. One of every four deaths will be caused by cancer this year. With 100 years of service, the American Cancer Society and its volunteers work tirelessly to fulfill the mission to eliminate cancer.

WHO

The American Cancer Society is the nationwide community-based, voluntary health organization dedicated to eliminating cancer as a major health problem by preventing cancer, saving lives from cancer and diminishing suffering from cancer through research, education, advocacy and service.

JOIN US

Become a part of the group of distinguished leaders, supporters, volunteers and media partners in the Emerald Coast to assist in hosting American Cancer Society's 2019 Gala, Road To A Cure.
